AT UC SANTA BARBARA

2008: Diane Clow enters her first season in the UCSB program. Brings experience to the keeper position with a gamer attitude and a love for the game. Has good positioning in the crease and can clear accurately to teammates running upfield as well as cutting back to the ball. Was recruited by head coach Paul Ramsey to Pepperdine while he was head coach there but Clow was looking for a school with a Geology major, which Pepperdine doesn't have. Ramsey's recommendation of UCSB's Geology Department long before he applied to become the coach of the Gauchos has paid dividends.

BEFORE UC SANTA BARBARA

Prepped at Poway High School in Poway, California. Selected as All-League Honorable Mention her senior year in high school in 2007.

PERSONAL

Parents are Marshall and Lauren Clow.
